English-Taught Graduate Programs

Global Studies (GPGS)

The Graduate Program in Global Studies emphasizes inquiry into the contemporary world and its historical antecedents by combining the interdisciplinary themes of global studies, theories and the methods of academic disciplines, and cross-cultural understandings of Japanese and area studies. It has three MA degrees - Global Studies, International Business and Development Studies, and Japanese Studies - each with its own specialized curriculum. Graduate exchange students are welcome to take content courses that are consistent with their graduate degree and for which they have sufficient background.

Japanese Language Course

The Center for Language Education and Research provides multiple tracks and levels of Japanese language courses according to students’ needs and linguistic backgrounds. Students who wish to attend Japanese class can choose from regular track or intensive track. Students who have prior Japanese study experience will be placed to appropriate class level according to the result of Japanese placement test.

Regular Track (4 credits)
- The regular track offers beginning, intermediate to advanced courses where 90-minute classes meet four or five times per week. This course aims to focus on developing communicative competence through extensive practices by integrating four skills, listening, speaking, reading and writing. English is occasionally used for instruction as necessary.

Intensive Track (8 credits)
- Intensive Japanese track, which offers four-level intensive courses at beginning, intermediate, and advanced levels, is designed for students whose main purpose of coming to Japan is to study Japanese. Classes meet for three hours a day through Monday to Friday. Fifteen hours of class time per week allow students to spend sufficient time to gain the high level of Japanese proficiency. English is occasionally used for instruction as necessary.

Registration Requirements
- *Exchange students must register and attend more than 10 hours of classes per week. To fulfill this requirement, attending at least 7 periods (90 minutes constitute one period) every week is necessary.

Course Restriction
- *FLA core programs, FST laboratory classes, the foreign language courses (except Japanese language), seminar and Studies in Christian Humanism courses are NOT open to exchange students.
- *Exchange students should choose most courses from the departments/graduate program that he/she enrolled in.

Credit Restriction (per semester)
